CHINESE NEW YEAR CULTURE ASSOCIATION SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA

Dear Business and Community Leaders:

As the Chair of the Chinese New Year Culture Association (CNYCA) for the Year of the Horse, I would like to express our appreciation for your generous support in the past. You are cordially invited to be part of the 17th annual Chinese New Year Celebration, the biggest regional Chinese culture event that attracts 3000 people from Sacramento, Placer and Yolo Counties annually.

CNYCA was established 18 years ago by 10 local Chinese American organizations driven by the desire to enhance the collective community experience. As a 501(c)3 non-profit organization, our mission is to promote Chinese culture and heritage through Chinese performing arts to bring all ethnicities in Sacramento together. The celebration includes traditional lion dances, martial arts, kung fu, Tai Chi, traditional Chinese instruments, cultural dance performances, Chinese painting and singing. In addition, CNYCA sets up games for children as well as other engaging cultural activities and exhibits.

In striving for excellence, we are planning several improvements to the Celebration on February 15, 2014. It will kick off the Year of the Horse with more exciting and interesting programs to the attendees. We have selected a new facility, Hiram Johnson High School, which houses a professional stage and will allow us more choice and flexibility in featuring the best programs. More guests can be accommodated by this larger capacity auditorium.

Attached are the Flyer and Sponsorship Form for this Celebration. I invite you to contribute to this special opportunity to be at the heart of the Greater Sacramento community. Once you have determined your level of participation and support, please return the sponsorship form by January 05, 2014 with a camera ready advertisement via email to us.

Please visit our website www.cnyca.net for more information and past year programs. Please do not hesitate to contact me or any of the directors for any questions regarding this event.

We appreciate your interest and generous support. We look forward to working with you and your organization or business.

Sincerely,

Daniel Chiang
