Chinese New Year Poster Contest for the Year of the Rat 2020

Hosted by Chinese New Year Culture Association (CNYCA)

Rules

1. Topic: Expression of the sights, spirits, and/or feelings of the Chinese culture pertaining to the Lunar New Year
2. Poster paper: 22 in. x 28 in. Designs can be cut-and-paste or original drawing/painting using various materials. (Please refrain from using glitter powder or oil pastel due to the heat of laminate.) The poster must be flat/two-dimensional so that it can be laminated (OPTIONAL) with a plastic film.
3. The poster front side must not display identifiable information, such as the author’s name or school name.
4. Qualification: Any Grade 1-12 student living in the greater Sacramento region, including Placer, Yolo, and El Dorado counties.
5. Contest groups:
   1) Elementary school group: Grades 1-5 (DOB after 9/1/2008)
   2) Middle school group: Grades 6-8 (DOB from 9/1/2005 to 8/31/2008)
   3) High school group: Grades 9-12 (DOB before 9/1/2005)
6. Awards in each group: 1st place - $100, 2nd place - $50, 3rd place - $30. The winners will be notified by email before 1/31/2020. We will select one best artwork as CNYCA 2020 program book cover page.
